

Let the consumer decide! This country was built on free enterprise and freedom of choice. If the NAB is afraid of some competition, then let it's members IMPROVE their services instead of crying for "protection". Or are they too complacent and lazy to actually work for their place in the market?